Hi y'owls!

Due to unforeseen circumstances within my current Vtuber company, I will resume my streaming activities on my old channel starting today and rebrand my name to just "Athy." I will not have any affiliation with AkioAIR on this account. I will also use a different model, but Athy will always remain Athy no matter where I go! I will also continue using this Twitter account, as they are my personal accounts. I will only be changing my name and branding (and maybe a new outfit??? OwO)

I am so excited to resume streaming and start interacting with everyone again! I am so so sorry for my radio silence. But I am ready to return with more cozy clinic chats, karaoke streams, and originals/cover songs! See y'owls again soon!

Athy

Regardless of the formalities it will be nice to give the old channel some love, I hope Akio don't do anything crazy and the channel gets to stay up as the new archive or something, far too many ear blessings to lose 🙏
I hope that your well and are getting time to rest
